Glen Oak Country Club

Glen Oak's 18 hole, par 72 golf course is renowned for its immaculate grooming and smooth, brisk greens. The first nine opened in 1953, with a second nine holes added in 1961. The course architect was James Harrison, who was trained by and worked under Donald Ross, and designed many course in PA and throughout the country. It features 5 tees, gold (championship), blue (mens), white (senior mens), red (ladies championship), and green (ladies).

About THE COMM

The Waverly Community House is a 501(c)3 charitable organization committed to offering educational, recreational, cultural and social opportunities throughout the region.

The Comm is home to so many activities, such as: summer day camps, art and music programs, special needs programming, after school daycare, youth events and athletic programs, and outdoor recreational facilities.

Scholarships are available so everyone can participate, regardless of income. The Comm's activities, playground and common areas are open to the public. It welcomes thousands of visitors all year long. Through its tremendous spirit of civic engagement, the Comm has served the community for nearly a century.

Thank you in advance for your interest and support.

YOUR support of the Comm Classic Centennial Golf Tournament at Glen Oak Golf Club will have an immediate and direct impact on all that we do.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Maria Wilson at the Waverly Community House: (570) 586-8191 or mwilson@waverlycomm.org.
